Shwmae,

Hoffai Cell Dyffryn Dyfi Cymdeithas yr Iaith wahodd rhieni, athrawon a llywodraethwyr yr ysgol i gyfarfod agored "Dyfodol Addysg Gymraeg ym Maldwyn" am 7pm ar ddydd Iau Medi 21 yn Neuadd Glantwymyn.

Prif fwriad y cyfarfod yw trafod sut gallwn ni bwysu i gynyddu nifer ysgolion Cymraeg y sir, gyda golwg ar sicrhau addysg Gymraeg i bawb mewn amser.

Bydd Pete Roberts, Aelod Cabinet ar gyfer Powys sy'n Dysgu, a rhai o swyddogion addysg y Cyngor yn bresennol i adrodd ar gynlluniau'r Cyngor.

Yn ogystal, bydd cyfle i glywed gan Gwenllian Lansdown Davies, Prif Weithredwr Mudiad Meithrin; Tegwen Bruce-Deans, y bardd o Landrindod; Elin Haf Gruffydd Jones, Prif Weithredwr, Canolfan Uwchefrydiau Cymreig a Cheltaidd Prifysgol Cymru, Toni Schaivone, Cadeirydd Grŵp Addysg Cymdeithas yr Iaith.

Os gwelwch yn dda rhannwch y gwahoddiad yma gyda staff, rhieni a'r bwrdd llywodraethol - diolch.

Cymdeithas yr Iaith in Dyffryn Dyfi would like to invite parents, staff and governors to an open meeting, "Dyfodol Addysg Gymraeg ym Maldwyn" (The Future of Welsh Education in Maldwyn), at 7pm on Thursday September 21 in Glantwymyn Hall.

The main intention of the meeting is to discuss how we can encourage an increase in the number of Welsh language schools in the county, with a view to ensuring Welsh education for everyone in time.

Pete Roberts, Cabinet Member for a Learning Powys, and some of the Council's education officers will be present to speak about the Council's plans.

In addition, there will be an opportunity to hear from Gwenllian Lansdown Davies, Chief Executive of Mudiad Meithrin; Tegwen Bruce-Deans, the poet from Llandrindod; Elin Haf Gruffydd Jones, Chief Executive, Center for Advanced Welsh and Celtic Studies at the University of Wales, Toni Schaivone, Chair of Cymdeithas yr Iaith Education Group.

This event will be in Welsh but simultaneous translation will be provided. To ensure we have enough translation headsets please let us know if you will be attending and will need translation.

Please share this invite with staff, parents and governing body - diolch,
