Our school: what we want it to be like

Our school is a caring, welcoming, special place, where we feel safe. Ysgol Gynradd Llanidloes is a happy, healthy school where respect is very important. It is a school where we celebrate that we are all different and are proud of our differences. We want everyone to behave in a friendly and respectful way. Everyone at our school is equal and should be treated equally.

Why we need to have this policy and why it is important to us

A policy helps everyone to know what we expect at Ysgol Gynradd Llanidloes. It is important that the children are involved in writing the policy because we are part of the school family and everyone in the school family needs to understand how the school is run.

How we should behave and why?

We should behave in a respectful and appropriate way. This means that we should be friendly and kind to everyone. We should have pride in our learning and follow our school values. We should try hard to make the right choices and always do our best to respect each other, other people's views and opinions, our property, ourselves and our learning environment.

If we all follow our school values then we will all learn and achieve our targets. It will also make our school a friendly place to be, where people want to come to learn.

Our school values

We are ready	Rydym yn barod
We are respectful	Rydym yn barchus
We are safe	Rydym yn ddiogel

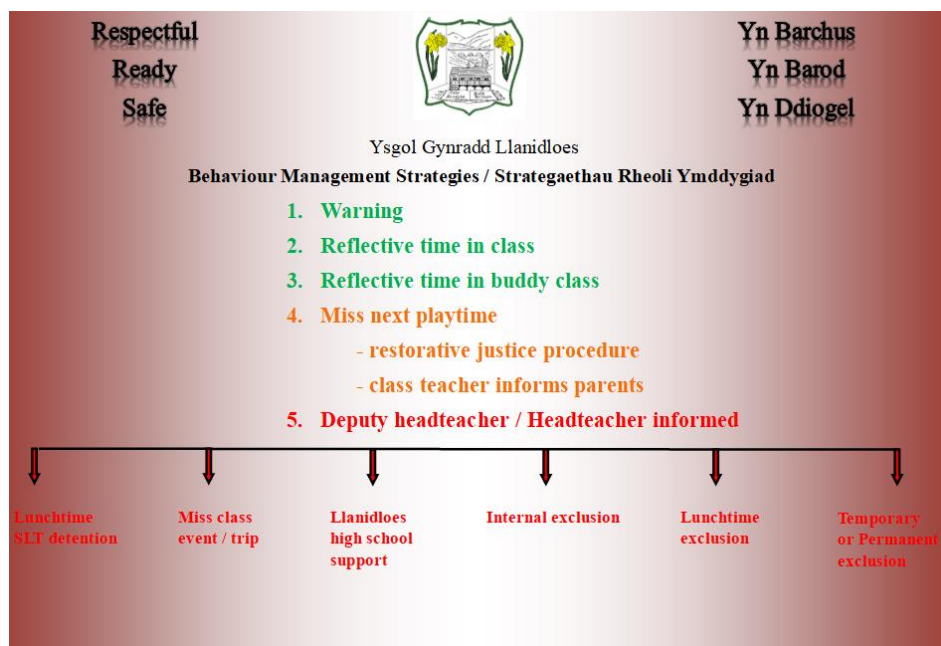

What happens if we behave appropriately?

We get rewards like:

- verbal praise
- 'well done' stickers
- we get to show our work to other teachers
- our teachers share the good things we do with our parents, each other and other schools
- good work is displayed at the back of the hall

We also have whole class rewards. We decide the rewards that we would like to work towards. Every class is different but we all get rewarded if we make the right choices.

What happens if we don't behave appropriately?

What we promise to do

We will try our best to follow our school values.

Is our behaviour system for everyone?

We expect everyone in our school family to respect our school values and try to set a good example.

Is our behaviour system for all of the time?

We should try to behave well all the time, wherever we are. During the school day, this means at breakfast club, playtimes, lunchtimes and after-school clubs too. This also includes school trips and when we are off-site, representing our school.

How we will know if our policy is working?

We will have well behaved children and a happy school where children always try their best. Everyone is polite and helpful towards each other, where everyone treats each other with respect.

Who has been involved in writing this policy and when will we write it again?

The School Council of Ysgol Gynradd Llanidloes wrote this School Behaviour Policy.
